CRAIG PARKER

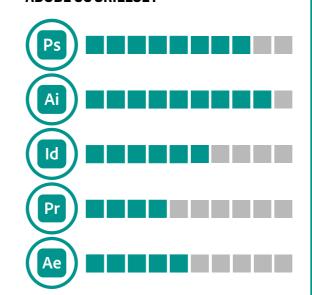

GRAPHIC DESIGNER

A highly versatile graphic designer with extensive experience in design and illustration for digital and print media, including apparel, brand identity and asset design for professional sports teams and athletes. Able to work independently from concept to production on a variety of projects, I am experienced in client management, social media campaign strategy, and have positive history of working with in-house design studios of large companies. A well-rounded skillset including logo design and brand identity, illustration, typography, video editing and production, motion graphics, social media management and strategy, and apparel design make me an outstanding fit for any graphic design team.

MOTO MONSTA

Moto Monsta is a motorcycle dealership and work shop based in the east of England. Max approached me to create a new logo for his brand including a word mark and a mascot that could be used independently from each other. This was then used to create digital and print based marketing collateral as well as apparel for his customers to buy.

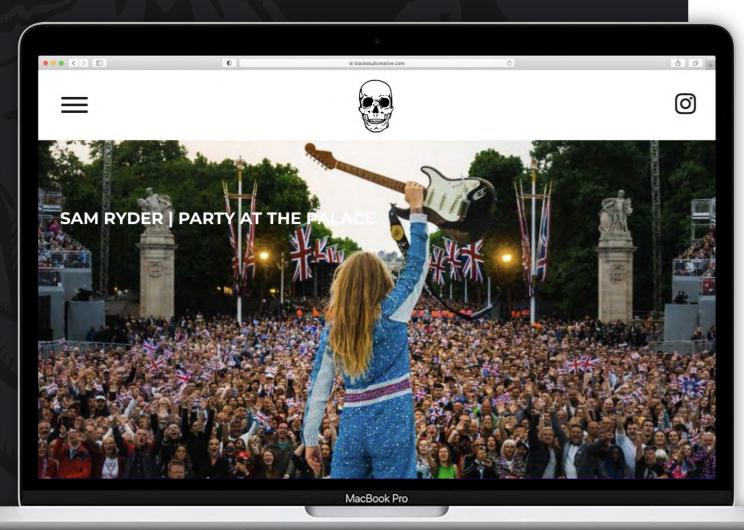

BLACK SKULL CREATIVE

Black Skull is a global creative studio that conceptualises and delivers dynamic and innovative experiences for a wide range of clients. From bespoke performances for music artists and brands to stadium scale spectaculars for international high profile events. Working together we developed a full branding package including a new logo, and marketing collateral to help boost the brands overall image.

SANDBOX ACTION SPORTS AESTHETICS

Sandbox Action Sports Aesthetics is a creative endeavour of mine, designing graphics and artwork for the two wheeled adrenaline fuelled industries of motocross, bmx, mountain biking, enduro and flattrack. I have produced illustrations and designs for bike graphics, t-shirts and apparel, posters and stickers all under the brands mantra: Ride. Race. Design. Through Sandbox, I have also managed to work alongside other like minded brands to develop artwork and various products for them.

BRANDING

BARCONWOOD

Barconwood provide a complete range of products and services to companies in the catering and hospitality industry. I worked for Barconwood as a member of the in house design studio from 2014 to 2020 and I still continue to work for them in a freelance capacity from time to time. In my work with Barconwood I have developed and created many POS ad signage pieces which have been used in Schools, Hospitals, Racecourses and Football grounds all over the country.
